Baking Industry

Praras provides a range of processing aids and improvers for the bakery industry. The biscuit improvers allow significant cost benefits without compromising on the quality of biscuits and provide greater stability to biscuit creams.

The bread improvers provided by Praras enhance the structural and sensory characteristics of bread which also lead to improved cost benefits during further processing.

Praras also caters to the eggless cake industry with its range of premixes which results in eggless cakes having excellent structural and sensory characteristics.
